My People Are Still Perishing...

by Pastor/Evangelist Barbara Lynch

My people are still perishing for lack of knowledge. {Hosea 4:6} So much fear has been programmed into the atmosphere that My people are not holding onto their promises. Instead, they are overcome by the tactic of fear. The enemy knows just exactly what will bring My people to their knees to darkness. He knows and understands the human brain can be programmed to the darkness quicker than to the light.

This new year you have entered into is a year of Victory, but the enemy has made it look like a year of more defeat. Children, you must stand on the promises that I have given each one of you. You do not have the privilege of looking back nor walking in indecision.

More darkness on the horizon. You have seen absolutely nothing yet. The darkness is overtaking the atmosphere. Why? Because My children will not yield to My call to come up higher and sit with Me and be taught the deepness of the richness of Heaven. They are so busy running around in circles when in fact, they should be equipping themselves with all the power and authority Heaven has for them to fight this new phase of warfare that is coming upon the earth.

Children, I have spoken that you have never been this way before, and I do not lie. You have not been this way before. {Joshua 3:4 NIV} Different types of warfare! Other weapons are needed to fight. You have already entered into the new year and all that it holds. You can stop nothing that I have set in motion, but you can control what the enemy is trying to do. As you climb up to the third heavens and operate from that place of peace, confusion will not be able to take you over.

My people, the harvest is ready, and I have already prepared the harvesters I foreordained to bring in this Harvest of Lost Souls. Joel speaks about this time in My Word. I have already prepared the Forerunners, and these are the Giant Slayers that I am sending forth to defeat the enemy at every turn. You will no longer think that church is mundane, for I am bringing the church to a place of complete freedom in Me, and the enemy will in no wise be able to bring My church to their knees ever again.

The word has gone forth, and those who have ears to hear are hearing the still small voice that is speaking Great Mysteries into their ears. They hear the still small voice of instruction, and they will lead many into Kingdom Freedom. {Matthew 11:15.}

Whose report are you believing? The word of the Lord stands tall and firm, and nothing can take down that report of Freedom in the Glory. I am dropping My Glory in all of its fullness, and it has embedded in it the Miraculous and the Greater Works that word speaks about.

Children, this is the era of miracles, and you shall see miracles like never before. My people will carry the anointing that sets the captives free. This anointing will go into the minds and set the minds free to serve Me. You have seen nothing yet, little ones, but you will see, and you will hear the testimonies all across the land. The enemy will have to stand back as My Giant Slayers proceed forward to tear down the Kingdom of darkness.

You are living in the last days, and you are preparing the way for the second coming of My Son Jesus to come and take His Bride home.

New
40 Year
Dispensation
Has Begun!

My daughter, many are walking circumspetfully of My Word and I stand in the heavenlies and I weep over My people, just as My son wept over Jerusalem. Pray church! Pray as you have never prayed before. Fast and pray! Set aside quality time to intercede for the lost in the house of God. Set your forehead like flint before the enemy and do not allow him to steal your prayer time. I am calling intercessors at this given hour. I sit in the heavenlies and I weep over My Church that is so blinded by the things of this world. I Am that I Am, but they do not see Me as the Great I Am. They see Me as some far off God that does not hear the cries of their hearts. If they would only take the blinders off as they read My Word and if they would only come higher with Me, My Holy Spirit would show them all the truths of My Word and they would not be led as sheep to the slaughter by the false teachers that have risen up and taken over My Sheep and My Pastures.

Oh My children, My children when are you going to look up and see Me for who I truly am. I am the Almighty Father that desires to give you fresh manna from heaven each and every day, but you are content to eat from the stale loaf that is set before you by uncircumcised hands. Take heed little ones, lest you fall away in this hour. Take heed that you do not allow the wicked one to take you so far into deception that there will be no way out. Arise and Shine, for the Glory of the Father is upon you, but you must walk in that Glory. (Prophecy by Evangelist Barbara Lynch; March 23, 2007)

Father what do you have to say to your children today?

Absolutely nothing that is new; for I have spoken My entire heart to My Body of Believers. But understand one thing, I am on the move right now and I am not going to stop for anything. I have purposed to do the things that are coming and I am not going to change My mind. You need to hold up your unsaved loved ones and you must intercede for this nation like never before.

Just as I am on the move, so is the enemy. Be consistent in your intercession; trust and believe Me for all things at this given time. "Yes, I'm on my way to visit you with Judgment. I'll present compelling evidence against sorcerers, adulterers, liars, those who exploit workers, those who take advantage of widows and orphans, those who are inhospitable to the homeless—anyone and everyone who doesn't honor me." A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies. "I am GOD—yes, I AM. I haven't changed. And because I haven't changed, you, the descendants of Jacob, haven't been destroyed. You have a long history of ignoring my commands. You haven't done a thing I've told you. Return to me so I can return to you," says GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies." (Malachi 3:5-7, MSG). (Prophecy by Evangelist Barbara Lynch; May 9, 2015)

Far be it from Me to force you to do My will. If you want flesh; you shall have flesh. If you want My Holy Spirit; you shall have My Holy Spirit. If you want My Glory; you shall have My Glory. You make the choices; I just stand by and make sure you get what you want. (Prophecy by Evangelist Barbara Lynch; April 2, 2017)

Hear Ye, Hear Ye Step right up and receive the fullness of the God Head and then take that infilling to a lost and dying generation. What a day you live in! What a wonderful time to be rejoicing and leaping and dancing! The Atmosphere is electrified with My presence. I am taking My presence throughout the land and I am filling My vessels of honor to overflowing so all they come in contact with will receive from the OVERFLOW of My power and authority.

Hurry! Hurry! Step right up and receive more than enough for this present day harvest of souls. The outpouring is not going to cease. This outpouring is paving the way for the return of My Son Jesus.

Hurry! Hurry! We have no time to waste. The wheels have been set in motion and I am on the move.

Oh, I say REJOICE in the abundance of My Glory and faint not. HEY, REJOICE, REJOICE, RE-

JOICE! (Prophecy by Evangelist Barbara Lynch; February 8, 2018)

Far be it from Me to force you to do My will. If you want flesh; you shall have flesh. If you want My Holy Spirit; you shall have My Holy Spirit. If you want My Glory; you shall have My Glory. You make the choices; I just stand by and make sure you get what you want. (Prophecy by Evangelist Barbara Lynch; April 2, 2017)

Too often My people run amuck in their confused minds. I have said over and over again that I so desire to give all My people a renewed mind. A mind that is stayed on Christ and Him crucified.

The enemy so desires to play games with you in your minds. You must at all cost turn your minds totally and completely over to Me, the author and finisher of your faith. I will wash and cleanse the mind of all debris from the darkness that has covered this land. I desire you to walk in the light and the light be so bright that it will cause the darkness to flee.

The enemy is using mind control to control My people in this new era of time. Lean not to your own understanding but trust Me and allow Me to have full control of all things that pertain to your life. (Prophecy by Evangelist Barbara Lynch; August 12, 2020)

When a marriage shows signs of trouble, it seems that all that is wrong is point out, and all the good things start to fade away. A sense of throwing in the towel quickly develops, and the thought of divorce comes to mind. It is painted as an easy way out, a quick way of finding something "new." This is how the world seems to think these days. The problem is so do a lot of Christians.

It blows my mind how a person will fight to get a divorce faster than fighting for their marriage, and it doesn't make any sense. Without going on a tangent on this, I want to point out that a divorce is a fight - just as much as fighting to keep your marriage. The only difference is no problems are solved. They just get put into another form or person.

When you get a divorce, you are facing time in court in some form or another. In many ways, I am sure that a person has rationalized why they are there and have the right to end the marriage. However, there are times (very few times) when divorce is necessary. The problem is the fight is going in the wrong direction and in the wrong court system. It is being dealt with a wrong battle plan.

Many times a problem in a marriage is a sign of a manifestation of a deeper problem. Therefore, there is a spiritual intervention that needs to take place to find the root of the problem. This can happen in the Courts of Heaven.

Your marriage is a gift, an assignment, a ministry that God has given you. It is, as you may say, an investment that God has given you to be able to grow and mature and do the work of God's Kingdom. It is possible to be great works for His Kingdom than you being on your own. Would you just up and throw away your ministry at the signs of trouble, or would you be willing to fight for it?

Go to the Courts of Heaven and find out what the enemy may have on you that has brought these cursed issues in your marriage. The enemy may even have stolen some real estate in your marriage that needs to be taken back. The enemy may have caused a separation that needs to be destroyed. You may need to reconcile, and it just so happens there is a court in Heaven just for that. Whatever it may be, the matter can be dealt with in the Courts of Heaven.

Bring your marriage, your spouse, and problems before the Judge. Bring your marriage vows which is a binding legal agreement that you have made to one another. Use this as leverage against the enemy and make him let your marriage go so that you can have more of a fighting chance. Put your fight against the enemy and not against your spouse.

No matter what your case is, take it to the Courts of Heaven and be heard by the Judge. Let the Judge decided the next course of action. You may be pleasantly surprised how it all turns out.

Gateways By Rev. Brett Connell

There are various gateways within our tripart being. Our being is composed of three parts: body, soul and spirit. Each part contains several gateways through which many things can enter into us. Each gate is tied into a particular function of our body, soul and spirit. Our spirit has eight gateways, our soul has seven and our body has five.

Before the gateways can be functioning correctly and cleansed; they must also be aligned in the proper order. Our body should be under our soul; our soul should be under our spirit; and our spirit should be submitted in servant-hood to the Lord Jesus Christ. This happens when we take seriously the following Scripture:

[1 Thessalonians 5:23] May God himself, the God of peace, sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (NIV)

We see here in this Scripture that Paul is expressing a sanctification process in our spirit, soul and body – thoroughly and completely. Essentially, he is saying that we should seek and allow God to cleanse all of our gateways within our spirit, soul and body. Remember, sanctification is a process and involves setting these areas apart for God and for His purposes.

It stands to reason that if Paul is admonishing us to 'sanctify' our spirit, soul and body – that we must work diligently to do our part to keep our spirit in communication and operating with God via the Holy Spirit, and also to do our part to diligently work with keeping our soul and body sanctified as well. This is exactly what exorcism and deliverance achieves.

So, what exactly is a gateway? A gateway is a place of authority where dominion is exercised. Whoever (or whatever) controls your life's different gateways will exercise authority, dominion and control over you. Consider if we have inadvertently given demonic forces legal access and rights to sit in those gateways to dominate us? What have we allowed to sit in our gateways to exercise influence and control over our 'city square'?

Let's take a look specifically at the eight gateways of the spirit-man within our being. Through these gateways, the presence of God can enter into our spirit-man. They are as follows: Revelation, Intuition, Fear of God, Prayer, Reverence, Faith, Hope and Worship. If a demonic force sits in the gateways that lead to your spirit-man, you can see how they would tamper with any of these areas. As we mentioned earlier, there are seven gateways of the soul. They are as follows: Conscience, Reason, Imagination, Mind, Emotions, Choice and Will. Each of these gateways is like a small rudder, able to steer the entire ship.

Keeping these gateways clean through the sanctification Paul spoke of is key in enduring the battles that will come – and having a lasting relationship with Jesus. Humbleness, submission, and meekness are attributes of an open heart that remains soft. We must keep our gateways clean as the gross darkness unfolds, so that we may not be taken off course.

by Rev. Kathryn Gore (DoTK)

In September, Texas passed Senate Bill 8 into law. This is designed to protect babies in the womb. Why is this a victory? God loves the little children.

“Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not me but him who sent me.” -Mark 9:37.

Many women feel that their rights have been taken away but is this true? The bill was drafted to limit the rights to abort life after the doctor can hear the heartbeat of the child. The baby’s heartbeat can be heard around six weeks of pregnancy. This does not remove the rights of women to choose what’s best for them but narrows down the time to make that final decision of life or death.

Though many have decided to fight against this bill, one has to wonder why is death so necessary?

Vice President Kamala Harris stated “The right of women to make decisions about their own bodies is not negotiable. The right of women to make decisions about their own bodies is their decision, it is their body.”

This statement was made during a press conference with healthcare providers who are trying to reverse the bill. Yes, we have freewill, but who will take a stand to fight for the unborn? Why has adoption been overlooked? Why are so many women comfortable with choosing death over life?

In the past, women carried a sense of care for their unborn child. They would consider adoption or at least think it through with a rational mind to choose the best decision for the child and not necessarily for themselves. This has all changed. Today, the CDC estimates that there are more than 600,000 abortions performed every year. At the same time, there are less than 15,000 adoptions of relinquished infants.

The enemy had an agenda for years to destroy the seed of God in hopes that his seed would rule and reign over the earth. Using women as a tool of darkness, many have allowed for their hearts to grow cold towards life. Deception has settled into their bones, and they are fighting with everything they have to keep their rights in having the option to destroy their very own seed.

This is a hard statement to share but something I would like you as the reader to consider. I recently read women who are fighting for pro-choice carry a spirit of self-hate, as they are actually killing a piece of themselves. Doesn’t this statement make you wonder? Self-hate comes from the enemy. The enemy hates the people who belong to God and he will trick them into believing that God hates them as well and this is far from the truth.

Recently in Seaford Delaware, there was a rally being held to fight for abortion. Since this bill has been passed in Texas, several states are standing their ground to fight for women’s rights but we MUST wake up to see the tactics of Satan. He’s all about his business in destroying the perfect will of God. If he can get us women to hate God, it’s a win for him.

God uses men to plant the seed, but we as women carry the seed. We are responsible for bringing life into the world. Satan knows this and he has taken advantage of the knowledge that he has against human life. His purpose is to steal, kill, and destroy and he’s not going to

El Rosh Hashaná Es El Nuevo Año Judío by Rev. Astrid Sherriff

El Rosh Hashaná es el nuevo año judío y se celebra el primer y el segundo día de tishrei, que como se denomina al primer mes del calendario hebreo moderno, y el séptimo mes según la Biblia, siendo según este orden el primer mes Nisán, conmemorando la salida de los hebreos de Egipto.

Conocemos como Rosh Hashaná al nuevo año judío. Este año se celebrará con la llegada de la primera estrella de la tarde del viernes 18 de septiembre hasta el domingo 20 de septiembre de 2021.

Este tiempo se presenta para los judíos como un tiempo de meditación y de reflexión, haciendo balance de todos los actos que han realizado durante el año, haciendo rectificación a través de las plegarias de arrepentimiento.

El momento más importante de esta celebración ocurre con el toque del Shofar que representa el grito de todo el pueblo judío a Dios, reconociéndolo como Rey Eterno y como Creador.

El 1º de Tishrei es el primer día de un nuevo año y con él empieza un tiempo de 10 días que los judíos utilizan para reflexionar y volver a su lado más espiritual.

Durante estos días Dios pide librarse de todo lo que no corresponde en la vida de cada uno para así, rectificar y vivir de acuerdo con la ley divina.

Este período de 10 días termina con el Día del Perdón conocido como Iom Kipur o Yom Kippur.

Como decíamos más arriba, el toque del Shofar es el centro de celebración del Rosh Hashaná. El Shofar es un instrumento primitivo hecho a partir de un cuerno de carnero y hace referencia al carnero que sacrificó Abraham, en lugar de sacrificar a su hijo Issac, a quién pensaba utilizar para el sacrificio en un primer momento.

Este instrumento se toca durante la plegaria de la mañana y todo hace referencia al arrepentimiento, esta vez representado en el arrepentimiento de Abraham. De ahí que el sonido emitido por el Shofar es parecido al sonido del llanto. Para los judíos, este es el llanto de Dios, que llora porque el hombre se alejó de su camino.

Los sonidos que se emiten con el Shofar con Tekiá, que se corresponde con un sonido fijo y largo, después el Shevarim o Teruá, que significa rotura y después otra vez el Tekiá. Estos son los sonidos que se utilizan porque son los mismos que sonaban cuando el pueblo judío quería avisar al campamento en el desierto de que continuaba su viaje.

Levítico 23: 23-25 El SEÑOR le ordenó a Moisés 24 que les dijera a los israelitas: «El primer día del mes séptimo será para ustedes un día de reposo, una conmemoración con toques de trompeta, una fiesta solemne en honor al SEÑOR. 25 ese día no harán ningún trabajo, sino que presentarán al SEÑOR ofrendas por fuego».

Properly Break the Resistance

Ministry of the Shofar - by Rev. Adam Betz

The resistance to God's Spirit is so thick right now with fear, chaos, and confusion. The shofar is a key instrument to use for breaking down these walls of resistance. However, for a shofar blast to be impactful to demolish these strongholds, it must be a God breathed point of instruction. In other words, if we just do it to do it, it will not be mighty to pull down these barriers. One of the best examples for this is found in Joshua Chapter 5.

Before the battle of Jericho, Joshua was waiting near Jericho when he had a circumstance come up where he was at first unsure of what to do. He saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword. Joshua asked the man whether he was "for us (Israel) or our enemies". The man said "Neither. As the commander of the Lord's army, I have now come" (Joshua 5:14 A)

We will look at Joshua's response to such a powerful encounter in a moment, after we first compare this story to a visitation that the Apostle Peter had when Moses and Elijah appeared to him, James, John, and Jesus.

After seeing Moses and Elijah appear, Peter was astonished and responded "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you want, I will put up three tents here—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." This really made no sense, but the awe of the moment caused fear to usurp Peter and cause him to want to step out and do something that was irrelevant to what was going on. God was about to speak to prove to Peter, and everyone Peter would later share this with, who Jesus was. Peter gave into the confusion in his soul, instead of asking God what he should do.

(Returning to Joshua 5:14 B) Joshua's response on the other hand was to inquire what he should do. "What message does the Lord have for His servant?" In other words, Joshua was inquiring of God "What should I do." Instead of suggesting to God (as Peter did) as to what he thought would be a good fit for that time and season. Isaiah Chapter 55 reminds us that God's ways and thoughts are not our ways and thoughts. The shofar can be a key instrument to remove the confusion and chaos in the atmosphere so that we can hear God properly and fight our spiritual battles in power.

Supremacy of Christ

by Rev. Aaron Betz

Sometimes when all else fails and nothing makes sense, the only thing that one can do is lift up Jesus; to declare how truly awesome He is. Surely there is never a wrong time to do this. Consider though, that many don't think [enough] about Jesus as being the God of the Bible. There are common misunderstandings that can separate Jesus and the Father God to a fault. Let's look at an Old Testament scripture which is praising God:

Nehemiah 9: 6 You alone are the LORD. You created the heavens, the highest heavens with all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them. You give life to all things, and the host of heaven worships You.

This scripture speaks of an awesome God Who created all things: even the highest Heavens and all that dwells therein. This God gives life to all things and even the amazing hosts of Heaven worship Him. Hold on to this truth and look at the following New Testament scripture:

Colossians 1: 15 - 17 [BSB] The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. 16For in Him all things were created, things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities. All things were created through Him and for Him. 17 He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together.

It doesn't sound like Jesus has ever been sitting on the sidelines apart from God. Jesus, the Word of God, has always been with God.

John 1:1 [NLT] In the beginning the Word already existed. The Word was with God, and the Word was God.

In Colossians 1:16 you can see that all things were created "through and for Him." This means that not only did God allow Jesus to create all things but the entirety of creation was given to Jesus by the Father. There is a beautiful mystery found in the relationship between God the Father and Jesus that we may never fully understand until we enter into eternity, but one thing is for sure God does not take any glory from Jesus, in fact, He only desires that Jesus be glorified.

Hebrews 1:6 But when He again brings the firstborn into the world, He says: "Let all the angels of God wor- ship Him."

John 5: 23b Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

In Colossians 1: 19 we see this endorsement from Father God to Jesus most clearly:

For God was pleased to have all His fullness dwell in Him.

Jesus is supreme. He has always been and will always be. He is the Mighty God and so much more.

Isaiah 9: 6-7 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government will be upon His shoulders. And He will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Never In History Would We Have Imagined These Outcomes...

This statement can be applied to many situations in our lives on many different levels. Let's go back to September 11, 2001. Prior to this date would you have ever imagined a group of people being so committed to wreaking havoc upon America that they would actually take Jumbo Jets and fly them into buildings? The World Trade Center Towers fell, and the Pentagon suffered major damage because of these people. This was out of the realms of what we think possible.

Prior to 2020 could you have ever imagined our entire country being on complete lockdown with your very movements being restricted from City to City, State to State? Or not having enough toilet paper and cleaning supplies to stock your home? Or having to stand in line at the grocery store and be limited to single item purchases because no one knew when the next truck was coming in with supplies? Did you ever imagine that this would occur in America? Did you ever imagine being forced to wear a mask in public places? Never.

What about schools? Would you have ever imagined Colleges and Universities charging students the same exact price for an online education versus an in-person education? Prior to the lockdown would these schools have permitted online learning? How about our grade-school aged children? Did you ever imagine that this whole system would be limited to online learning and virtually closed for an entire school year in some areas at the suggestion that there was no other alternative? What about the loss of services to those students who needed Individualized Education Plans? What type of setbacks have they experienced because of this?

How about the Churches? Would you have ever imagined that multitudes of Churches would close their doors forever? They would not refuse to bow their knee to the government nor put up any resistance? And now they are closed. Did you ever imagine that some Churches would make the choice to go online like the Televangelists they spent time ridiculing? Did you ever imagine that some Churches would be under attack and persecuted because they did not close their doors? Did you ever imagine that the voice of the Church would be silenced and that our Freedom to assemble would be threatened as it has? Did you ever imagine that people would be arrested for singing worship songs to the Lord outside of their Church? Never.

Let's not forget the abuse of power by some of our elected officials. Did you ever imagine a time when men and women who knew right from wrong would stand by and let our Constitutional Rights be thrown out the window? Did you ever imagine a time where the Supreme Court of the United States would refuse to do its job in the name of, "We don't want to cause riots in the streets!" Did you ever imagine a time where a President was removed from Office by false pretenses, and no one had the instestinal fortitude to stand with him and defend the Constitution of the United States? Or what about the loss of trust in our system because votes were electronically inserted into the voting machines under false pretenses?

This is just a snapshot of the things that have been happening in America. I have to ask you. If you could have never imagined these things happening, how could you realistically prepare for them? How could you strategize against them and build a defense to keep these things from happening? There is no easy answer to these questions because the reality is that no one ever saw these things coming. You have to stop and think about this. You have to put some thought into what is really going on behind the scenes.

Be sober [well balanced and self-disciplined], be alert and cautious at all times. That enemy of yours, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion [fiercely hungry], seeking someone to devour. {I Peter 5: 8 Amp}

I am not seeking to assign blame upon anyone. No, I am trying to get you to see that unless God had revealed what was going to happen in all of these cases, we in our human finite minds could not possibly imagine the enemy coming up with these types of attacks and devices to trip us up. We have to learn from all of these scenarios and begin to think differently about them. We need to reverse engineer each of these scenarios and then be open the Holy Spirit to speak strange and unusual things to us.

In my heart of hearts, I know that God shared what was going to happen with each of these events and circumstances prior to them happening. I know this because God honors His Word. "Surely the Lord God does nothing without revealing His secret plan [of the judgment to come] to His servants the prophets." {Amos 3: 7 Amp} God cannot lie. So, what does this mean? We either have to become these prophets or be discerning enough to hear these prophets in the midst of the clamor of the well-known prophets in the Church. This is an important lesson for the Church to learn right now.

How many more of these "Never in History Would We Have Imagined" events are going to occur? We cannot be "bandwagon prophets" where we just prophesy everything that everyone else says. There has to be a push in your Spirit man to want to go deeper in the prophetic realm than where we are at now. We have to stop prophesying about the mundane things of this world and go to the deeper place where secrets like these are revealed. I believe in my heart that God wants to take us there. But we have to start from a place of humility. Which means you openly admit to God that you don't know what is going on, you would like to know but the reality is you do not know. We cannot see everything that God sees. When we get to this level of humility then I believe God will open up the next level of prophetic to us and shows us what He sees.

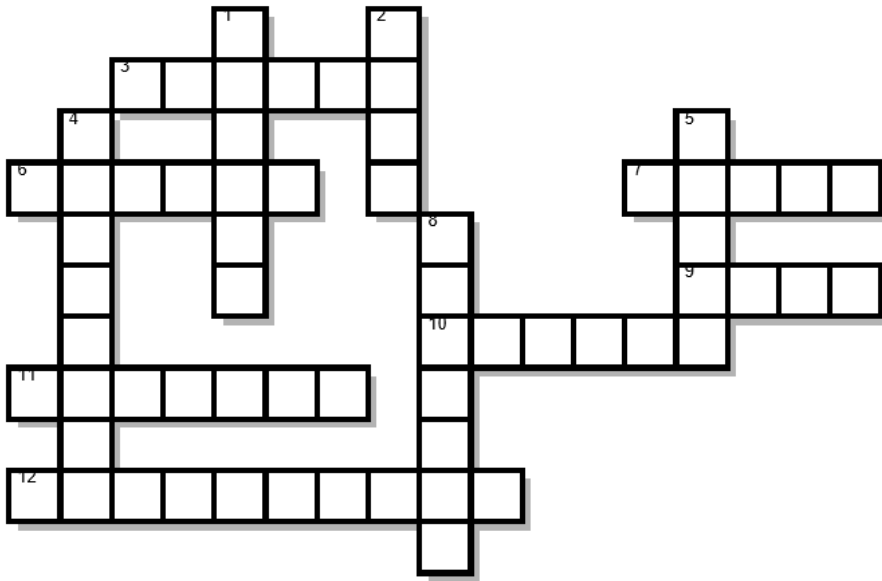

It's good to be in a company of prophets, there is safety there. There is nothing wrong with this, but we must know when we are to congregate with the prophets and when we are to separate ourselves from the group and the group think. It's in this separation that you can be free to not get bogged down with thoughts of the group.

We have to go deeper, or we are gonna be just like everyone else caught wondering what is really going on. The next "Never in History Would We Have Imagined" event is coming. Will you be in a position to hear from God? Selah.

stop until we take a stand against him.

Are you willing to fight against the enemy to save an innocent life that belongs to God? God gives life and creates purpose in all things for a specific reason. If you know in your heart that you cannot raise a child in this season of your life, give adoption a chance. At least the baby would have the same opportunity that was given to you which is life. Life Matters.

The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly. John 10:10

For the LORD is our judge; the LORD is our lawgiver; the LORD is our king; he will save us. Isaiah 33:22.
